Thank you for scheduling an intuitive healing session with me! Below is some useful information for you to read over before our appointment. You can find more information and FAQ on my website as well. If you have any further questions, please feel free to email me. Looking forward to working together!

What a session is like and how to prepare

An intuitive reading provides insight, direction, and down to earth support. Each session is different depending on the person. Readings can be about many things: life purpose, love, home, creativity, health, healing from trauma, or ancestral healing are some of the topics I work with. The scope of the reading is entirely up to you. Many people bring questions they'd like to explore, but it's not necessary. Once we begin, you may tell me what you'd like to focus on, where you are feeling stuck, or what you'd like support or guidance with and I may ask you some questions. Usually, I'll take a few minutes to be quiet to gather some information and we'll go from there. Sometimes I am guided do some healing work, make suggestions about a ritual or practice that would be supportive for you, or make a flower essence or herbal remedy.

My practice draws on many different healing modalities including intuitive counseling, stone work, energetic bodywork, ancestral magic, folk healing, western herbalism, flower essences and more. Most people really enjoy having a session; a deep sense of reassurance, a feeling of support, revitalized energy and renewed focus are common benefits. My approach is non-judgmental, direct, gentle, and supportive, enabling you to be wherever you are in your healing process and however you choose to express your beliefs and spirituality. I am a lover of the wild and free, the radical, and the anti-authoritarian and self-determinist spirit, so I aim to bring that into every reading.

*It is important to me to make my work as accessible and affordable as possible. I use a sliding scale and ask you to determine where you fall on it. Since I see my healing work as part of my offering to my communities, there are times when I do not charge, so by paying me whatever you are able to, you are helping everyone access healing work too. When we exchange time and money, I hold it as part of our work in undoing the spell of capitalism and the illusion of scarcity and greed. I desire and envision an alternative economy and hope my own work can be a model of abundance, trust, and generosity.

Cancellations and missed appointments

Preparation for your session begins at least half an hour before your arrival.

Therefore I ask that any cancellation or rescheduling arrangements be made as far in advance as possible.

There is a $50 fee for missed appointments or late notice cancellations. More than 15 minutes late is considered a missed appointment, as my schedule is often booked back to back.

There are 2 steps into the house and my office is in the attic on the 3rd floor of the house. If stairs are hard for you, please let me know one week in advance of your appointment so I can make arrangements to see you somewhere accessible for you.

I see many clients who are chemically and scent sensitive. Please come scent-free (perfumes, oils, laundry detergent etc), so I can keep my office space a healthy space for everybody. For more info on what this means, please check out Leah Lakshmi Piepzna Samarsinha's piece here:
